Franklin County General Election Results Certified Totals Set New Record for County Turnout

(Columbus) The Franklin County Board of Elections completed the official canvass this afternoon of the Nov. 6 general election finding a record turnout, but no change in the outcome of any contest nor recounts necessary.

The results show 574,563 voters - 71.06 percent of those registered- casting ballots including 232,651 voting absentee in person or by mail. The total includes 23,711 valid provisional ballots. There were 6,096 provisional ballots rejected.

The turnout tops the county's previous record in the 2008 general election of 564,971 or 66.85 percent of those registered.

Final results will be posted on the Web at <http://vote.franklincountyohio.gov>.

There were no filings for a special election in February. Franklin County's next election will be the May 7, 2013 primary.
